

CONTACT:

Mike Lawson
DML Communications
760/753-5943
mike@dmlcommunications.com

IWS Partnership with DCUC Benefits 'Returning Heroes Home' Charity

Deerfield Beach, Fla. – July 3, 2008 – Intercontinental Warranty Services, Inc. (IWS), a provider of Vehicle Service Agreements (VSA), Mechanical Breakdown Insurance (MBI), and GAP to credit unions nationwide, announces that it will provide donations to the Returning Heroes Home charitable organization through its partnership with the Defense Credit Union Council. Returning Heroes Home, will receive funds from each IWS product sold through DCUC. IWS has been providing charitable contributions to various organizations for 11 years running – totaling more than $40,000.

Returning Heroes Home (www.returningheroeshome.org) is an organization that is designed to meet physical and emotional needs of America's war veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan. The Warrior and Family Support Center formerly known as the Soldier and Family Assistance Center (SFAC) is a facility near Brooke Army Medical Center at Fort Sam Houston where both the patient and family benefit from a "safe" environment which enhances the healing process and teaches them how to cope with war related disabilities as individuals, couples, and as families.

IWS is also raising funds for Returning Heroes Home through TAC 2008, its annual Top Achiever's Conference by selling raffle tickets to attendees. As it has in the past with other charities, IWS will match money collected from the tickets and donate the total amount to the veteran's support organization. This is the first year IWS will add funds to Returning Heroes Home from products sold through its DCUC partnership.

In years past, IWS has supported other charities and organizations such as the United Service Organizations (USO), St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Children's Miracle Network, and more.

"Giving back is such a wonderful feeling for everybody – and it continues to build and retain our selfless and generous nature," states IWS President and CEO Jim Hawk. "It is our honor to work with DCUC in raising funds for Returning Heroes Home. We are so proud to be associated with these organizations and look forward to many years of giving back and supporting their cause."

About Defense Credit Union Council

Located in Washington, D.C., the Defense Credit Union Council is an organization of credit unions whose membership consists wholly or in part of personnel of the U.S. Department of Defense, both military and civilian. The Council is comprised of 240 credit unions with more than 14 million members. Organized in 1963, the Council is governed by a seven-member board of directors consisting of a representative from each of the services – Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps – plus three representatives at large. About two-thirds of the Defense Credit Unions are federally chartered, and one-third is state-chartered. For more information, visit www.d cuc.org.

About Returning Heroes Home

Heroes Home is a non-profit organization that helps soldiers' families experience love and support when they come to a new community, go through a deployment, or deal with a tragedy. For more information, visit www.returningheroeshome.org.

About IWS

Based in Deerfield Beach, FL, Intercontinental Warranty Services, Inc. (IWS) is a nationally recognized provider of Vehicle Service Agreements (VSA), Mechanical Breakdown Insurance (MBI), and GAP to credit unions nationwide. IWS provides vehicle protection solutions and peace of mind for credit union members that go beyond the actual products to include service after the sale. The company's proven success in meeting this need is based on its ability to train credit unions to match members with the right product to fit their need. For more information, visit www.iwsgroup.com.

###